

ICT Talking Book

For ICT, the children are creating a talking book of the Mayan creation story. First the children used a storyboard to organise their ideas.

Working in their groups the children took pictures for their book. All the props they either made themselves or brought from home.

Next, the children will be using Photostory to turn their pictures into a video. They will also add narration and sound effects to each picture.