Pearl of Africa Choir
Thursday 19th October 3:00 pm

Once again, we are fortunate to have the Pearl of Africa Choir visit our school. The choir will be undertaking a series of workshops with the children and then performing on the afternoon of Thursday 19th October at 3:00pm - everyone is invited to attend. They are amazing performers and the children and adults thoroughly enjoy the sessions they provide.

There will be a craft stall at 3:30 - 4:00 - all money raised will go to the charity.

The choir is made up of children from age 7 upwards who attend the Molly and Paul Foundation Schools in Uganda.

The Pearl of Africa Child Care Foundation raise money to help realise their vision of "making education more accessible in Uganda and raising levels of achievement through financially self-sustaining schools that include places for poor and disadvantaged children."

The children tour the UK from September to December, during which they hope to raise £2000 a day. The money we have raised from the Film Nights will go to this charity.

We really hope you can join us on the day to enjoy their performance.

Film Night

There will be a final Film Night on Friday 13th 3:30 - 5:30, £2.50 per child. Price includes hot dog, juice, sweets and popcorn.

The film will be Lego Batman the Movie.
