

Watercolours

Children have taken inspiration from Ole Kooli Paul ( a Massai painter) and then attempted to recreate one of his watercolour paintings. Children have been taught how to lay washes, use different brush strokes and how to add tone to their painting.

The results were brilliant. Well done