

Our mini topic was called Great Designers (textiles) which focussed on developing children's Art and DT skills. Children took their inspiration from textile designer William Morris to create their very own hand warmer.

