We're halfway there!

So today marks the halfway point of the school year – 3 half terms down, 3 more to go – and I can't quite work out where that time has gone. This week definitely felt like it represented the push to develop better links with parents. From having Parents' Evening back in school with books available to look at to the new and improved PTFA holding another successful disco to parents coming in to experience our children leading worship in their classes, it has been great to see all the engagement from our community. We have also had a lot of other teachers visiting our school in the last couple of weeks and they have all commented on how welcoming the school feels and how fantastic the children are. I hope you have a fantastic half term and we look forward to seeing you back in school bright and early on Monday 20th February.

Match Funding

The PTFA would like to know if any of the parents, or the companies they work for, would be able to match-fund any of our events. If you think this is something you may be able to help with, please contact school and we will put you in touch with the relevant members of the PTFA

Helping a Kenyan School

A group of volunteers from Everton in the Community are visiting Kenya to help at a local primary school. They will be teaching and helping with maintenance and building work. If you are able to donate any clothing, football kits, toothbrushes, toiletries or stationery for the children and staff they would be very grateful. Please bring any donations to the school office by Tuesday 28th February and we will pass them on.
