Thank You

Well, I can't really believe it is Friday already. This week has been very busy and has flown by. On behalf of myself and all the staff I'd just like to say thank you for all your support and messages this week, they have been greatly appreciated. The inspectors asked me to pass on their thanks for the time you gave to them in either filling out the Parent View survey or when they were speaking to you on Wednesday morning. So you know how the process works from now, the inspectors have 18 school working days to write the report and then there are a variety of quality assurance checks which mean they have a total of 30 school working days to provide the final report. This means the final report will be due on 20th March. As soon as we have the report we will share it with you all. Thanks again for your support and have a great weekend.

Let's Talk Pants

Pantosaurus has helped 1.5 million parents Talk PANTS and keep their children safe from sexual abuse. Developed in consultation with children, parents, carers and teachers, Talk PANTS is here to help children understand their body belongs to them, and they should tell a safe adult they trust if anything makes them feel upset or worried. Please refer to the website to find some really useful tips and advice for keeping your child safe.

Medicines

Whilst we understand there are lots of bug and viruses going around at the moment and we do want children in school, any medicines (including Calpol, throat sweets, nasal sprays, etc) must be brought to the school office by an adult and not be in book bags or children's pockets.
