From Small Acorns ...

This week I have had a lovely time down in the infants seeing what they were up to. I listened to some fantastic reading in Year 1, some brilliant editing of writing in Y2 and was amazed by the fantastic writing and imagination in EYFS. The common theme that ran through all the work I saw was the positive attitude the children had with their work and the resilience they showed. The way they thought about what they were doing, corrected errors and tried out different ideas was fantastic. This was brilliant to see and led to wonderful end results. Well done to all of you and keep it going!

This Week's Theme: Who am I?

Can you think of a team, person or school success that you could celebrate? Did this success come at the first attempt or did they have to practice and learn from their mistakes?

Next Week's Theme: Life Giver
